

First, watch this week's video!

Courage: Being brave enough to do what you should do, even when you're afraid

Memory Verse

"Be strong and brave.
Do not be afraid.
Do not lose hope.
I am the LORD your God. I will be with you everywhere you go."
Joshua 1:9b, NIV

Bible Story

Esther
Book of Esther

Bottom Line

You can do what you should even when you don't know what will happen.

Use this guide to help your family learn how God can give us courage.

Activity

Impossible Ice

What You Need:

coins; bin or deep pot; water; ice;
timer

What You Do:

Place the coins at the bottom of the bin. Pour water into the bin until it's about half full. Then, add ice. Invite your child to compete in a challenge.

Say, "I'm going to time you for 30 seconds. During that time, your challenge is to brave the ice water and pick up as many of the coins as possible. Ready? Go!"

Press start on the timer. Cheer your child on as they reach into the ice water to grab the coins.

When time's up, count the coins that your child picked up. Then say, "I bet that water was so cold that it felt impossible to get all the coins at once, didn't it? That reminds me of our Bible story today—when someone else faced an impossible situation."

Talk About the Bible Story

In today's story, who faced an impossible situation?
(David)

What was David's impossible situation? (He had to fight a giant armed with nothing but a slingshot.)

Why was David able to face Goliath and win? (He knew that God was with him—and God was!)

Have you ever tried to do something that felt impossible? (If your child has recently learned a new skill that was difficult, or gone through a tough situation, talk with them about it now. Ask them what it felt like to face something that seemed impossible.)

How can we face impossible situations with courage?

Parent: Share a personal story of a time God helped you face an impossible situation.

Prayer

Use this prayer as a guide, either after talking about the Bible story or sometime before bed tonight:

"God, thank You for this truth that we're not alone as we face our fears. When we have to face situations that might seem impossible, remind us that You're always with us. Please give us the courage we need to face difficult challenges in our lives. Remind us that nothing is impossible for You. We love You, and we pray these things in Jesus' name. Amen."