

FOR CONVERSATION:

1. Through the power of Jesus Christ and with the lame man's faith, he was made to walk. In response to his physical transformation, what did he do (Acts 3:1-10)?
2. In what other way does Christ bring transformation (2 Corinthians 5:17)?
3. Should we make it our mission to take the message of Christ's redemptive power to the world? Describe our mission when it aligns with God's mission (Acts 1:8, Matthew 28:16-20).
4. Rather than ducking the crowd, John and Peter addressed it. How do their words and action inform us about recognizing and responding to those who need to hear about Christ? (Acts 3:11-18)
5. When we have been changed by Christ, what must we do to embrace the salvation He offers us (Acts 3:19)?
6. Name the results of turning away from sin and towards God (Acts 3:19-20).
7. With what expectation should we await the return of Christ (Acts 3:21, 1:6-7, 11)?
