HABAKKUK 1:1-4

August 1, 2021

Pastor Chris Ward

1. Describe the nature of Habakkuk's prayer to the Lord (v. 2).
2. What words in Habakkuk's complaint showed that he had no fear when questioning the Lord? What do you see as an indication of his perseverance in making pleas to God? (v. 2)
3. Describe the basis of Habakkuk's complaint. (vv. 2-4).
4. From the example in vv. 3-4, explain why we have permission to be relentlessly honest in our appeals to God?
5. The Mosaic law had little influence on the hearts of the people and their behavior. Do you think that God put the law in place for His benefit or for that of His people? Do things go well when His laws are violated (v.4)?
6. How can we complain to God with reverence while "pulling no punches"?
7. Explain how we can remain righteous while in the midst of evil similar to that which Habakkuk faced.
