

FOR CONVERSATION:

HABAKKUK 1:5-11

August 8, 2021

Pastor Todd Molter

1. In response to Habakkuk's complaint (vv.1:2-4), God was ready to reveal His plan of action. What was the nature of this plan and its developments (v. 5)?

God is _____ working out His ways

2. How would the people, including Habakkuk, receive God's prophecy?

3. Describe the reality that was to befall the people (vv. 6-11 a).

_____ (v.5)

4. Do you think that Habakkuk was thrilled with God's prophecy? If you were in his shoes, what might have been going through your mind?

_____ (v.6-11 a)

5. Read v. 11b and explain how Babylonian morals should have reminded Judah's people of their own failings which resulted in their bondage.

_____ (v.11 b)

6. The Jews replaced God and His authority with rules and behaviors of their own making. Explain how this passage serves as an example that all people throughout the ages are born into sin as stated in Romans 3:23.

7. Fast forward from the happenings of Habakkuk's time to those of today. Name how God's ways have been replaced by the beliefs, and attitudes of our secular world. What part should Christ followers play in addressing these challenges?
